A plumber named Mario travels through an underground labyrinth with his brother, Luigi, trying to save a captured princess. Rated PG. 93 min. Children must be accompanied by an adult. No registration required. In the event of inclement weather, the program will be canceled.

FOR ADULTS

Author Talk: Ted Reinstein

Wednesday, September 6, 7:00 p.m.

Emmy Award-winning journalist Ted Reinstein, who has been a reporter for "Chronicle" on Boston's WCVB-TV since 1997, discusses his book Before Brooklyn: The Unsung Heroes Who Helped Break Baseball's Color Barrier. Learn the stories of little-known heroes such as Moses Fleetwood Walker, communist newspaper reporters, and Pullman car porters, who fought segregation in professional baseball. Registration is underway. NENA627

Neil Diamond Tribute

(N) Friday, September 8, 7:00 p.m.

Join us as the "Singing Attorney," John Zollo, pays tribute to one of America's most prolific songwriters and musical icons—Neil Diamond. Reminisce as you listen to songs that span the more than 50 years of Diamond's career. As part of this musical tribute, a brief overview of Parkinson's disease and available resources will be provided. Registration is underway. NENA628

Autumn Tea

A fundraising event for the Friends of the Northport-East Northport Public Library

(N) Saturday, September 30, 1:00–2:30 p.m.

The elegance of an afternoon tea and the celebration of autumn come together deliciously in this program featuring hostess Margaret Johnson. An author of thirteen cookbooks, Ms. Johnson will present a formal teatime menu that includes sandwiches, savories, scones, tea bread, and decadent sweets. Along with tea, a sparkling, nonalcoholic beverage will be served. Ms. Johnson's cookbooks will be available for purchase and signing.

Come meet members of the Friends of the Library and learn about ways in which the Friends help support the mission of the Northport-East Northport Public Library. Registration begins September 5. (Northport-East Northport Public Library cardholders only for the first week of registration.) A fee of $25.00 (cash or check made payable to "The Friends of the Library") is due at the time of registration. NENA638

For a festive touch, patrons may bring their favorite teacup and saucer. Each attendee will receive a special favor to take home.

FOR ADULTS

Learn to Be . . . Tobacco Free

(EN) Tuesdays, September 12, 19, 26, October 3, 10, 17, 31, 6:00 p.m.

This multi-session program is offered by the Suffolk County Department of Health Services and is based on the CDC's Clinical Practice Guidelines for treating nicotine dependence. The cessation program provides important information about the three aspects of nicotine dependence: biological, psychological, and behavioral. The emphasis is on preparing to quit. Those who use all forms of tobacco products (including cigarettes, cigars, pipes, e-cigarettes, and chew tobacco) are welcome. To register, call Debora at the Suffolk County Office of Health Services, 631-853-2928, or email debora.rippel@suffolkcountyny.gov. NENA629

Joseph P. Dwyer

Veterans Peer Support Project

(N) Wednesday, September 13, 2:00–4:00 p.m.

The Joseph P. Dwyer Veterans Peer Support Project was created to assist veterans, service members, and their families to achieve and sustain personal health, wellness, and purpose in their post-service lives through the support of trained veteran volunteers. Stop by and speak with a peer mentor to learn about free programs and services for Long Island veterans of all eras.

Preserving Your Organic Harvest

(N) Saturday, September 16, 1:00 p.m.

This program focuses on what you can do with your seasonal harvest to preserve it for the entire year. Topics covered include: canning foods, storing root vegetables, fermenting, freezing, and dehydrating. Organic growing consultant Renato Stafford will demonstrate how to can tomatoes, and make delicious crispy dill pickles. He will have tasty samples for all participants. Registration is underway. NENA640

Dance, Balance & Stretch

(N) Mondays, September 18, October 2, 16, 23, 30, 12:30 p.m.

This 5-week class will help you get fit, balanced, and flexible! Learn exciting global dances set to great music, then cool down with balance exercises and relaxing stretches. Bring a water bottle and wear low-tread sneakers. Note: As with all exercise programs, please check with your healthcare provider before registering. Registration begins September 1. ## Recovery Month

National Recovery Month is held annually in September by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Library is joining the community initiative to “turn purple” to raise awareness about substance use disorders as well as support those in recovery. Visit our library displays for information about community events, resources, and more. The following two programs are co-sponsored by Northport-East Northport Community Drug and Alcohol Task Force.

Medicine Collection

(N & EN) Thursday, September 7, 3:30–6:30 p.m.

The Northport Police Department and the Suffolk County Sheriff's Office will collect unused or expired prescription and over-the-counter medications. Proper disposal of these items is essential for risk reduction and environmental protection. No questions asked and no personal information is required.

Only medications in pill form will be accepted and must be placed in a plastic bag before arrival. Ask an Adult Services Librarian for a handout of places to safely dispose of medical sharps.

Mental Health Fair

(N) Tuesday, September 26, 3:30–6:30 p.m.

Meet with local organizations to learn about prevention, education, and recovery resources for people living with mental health and substance use disorders, their loved ones, and our community. Recovery is possible!

Opioid Overdose Prevention Training, 4:00–6:30 p.m.

CN Guidance & Counseling Services will provide training for interested adults (16 years and older) on how to recognize the signs of an opioid overdose and administer Naloxone (Narcan). No registration required; just stop by the table.

The Craft of Writing

(EN) Mondays, September 18, 25, October 2, 16, 23, 30, 1:00 p.m.

Each session will begin with a brief discussion of an aspect of the writing process. Participants may read aloud short samples of their writing—up to 500 words for group discussion and analysis. The workshop is open to all literary genres and will be led by a veteran journalist and professor. Registration is underway. NENA642
